

Curtain Closes on 2010 Zigen University Student Field Work

From July 20 to August 20, the Zigen Southern Office held a one-month long summer session university students' field work. Participants included: Yang Xiuling, Yu Shenghong, Wang Jieyuan and Luo Tongwu. During this period, the 4 students went deep into Sanjiaotian Village, Dunan Village, Gaoba Village in Zaima Township and Miaolan Village to investigate the Zigen-supported fuel-saving stoves, other environmental protection projects and local basic education needs. In addition, they participated in the Miao Youth Cultural Exchange conference held jointly by Zigen and the Guizhou Rural Cultural Society.
