

Beijing Liangma Riverbank Holds Zigen Publicity Dinner Banquet

On September 15, a buffet dinner banquet was organized at Liangma Riverbank in Beijing to introduce Zigen. Zigen China Standing Vice-Chairperson Yang Guiping introduced Zigen's experiences in the last 20 years of participating with local masses in rural development in the most remote and poverty-stricken countryside, and exhibited and auctioned handbags embroidered by Guizhou Miao women's group and handicrafts manufactured by schoolchildren of the Shanxi Luliang School for the Deaf and Mute. Banquet participants included Hao Capital employees and clients, Zigen China directors and staff, and more than 80 other invited guests. This dinner banquet received warmhearted praise from Hao Capital founder and Chief Executive Officer Liu Yangsheng: Liu Yangsheng not only provided the venue and invited the participants, but also covered the banquet expenses of all the dinner participants.
